

“SEARCH ME, OH GOD”

As “Daniel purposed - in his heart,
That he - would not - defile himself”;
May we - from worldly - ways depart,
Christ - to be - our Wealth.

"Search me, O God, - and know my heart;
Try me, and know my thoughts:"
Turn me from each wicked way,
That Christ might be my All.

To be set free - from sin and shame,
Only through - the Blood of Christ;
Not our strength - but in His Name,
The sinless Sacrifice.

"Search me, O God, - and know my heart:
Try me, and know my thoughts:"
Turn me from each wicked way,
That Christ might be my All.

May Jesus Christ, - and Christ alone,
Be - our only - One Delight;
To bear - much fruit, - before His throne,
Shinning - forth - His Light.

"Search me, O God, - and know my heart:
Try me, and know my thoughts:"
Turn me from each wicked way,
That Christ might be my All.

Do you know - the Grace to say?
As Paul - before - did clearly write;
And - of Whom - he did display,
“Christ, - Who is our life”.

"Search me, O God, - and know my heart:
Try me, and know my thoughts:"
Turn me from each wicked way,
That Christ might be my All.
That Christ might be my All.
That Christ might be my All.
